

Responsibilities

- Design, project management, project executive, installation, maintenance for industrial HVAC, cleanroom, process utility, electrical & C&S works.
- Estimate budget and scope of the project.
- Co-ordinate with customers, consultants, main & sub-contractors and suppliers on all project implementation issues.
- Coordinate, communicate and performs timely reporting internally and externally to related parties.
- Perform and ensure that assembly builds and test are completed as scheduled and according to required specifications, drawings and work instruction.
- Responsible for overall M&E construction site planning, work programme, construction operations and activities, management and all related reports.
- Manage project schedules and meeting project deliverables with minimum supervision.
- Supervise and coordinate the work of other engineers, and provide guidance and mentoring to junior team members.
- Ensure all projects are completed within the time frame.
- Prepare costing of ACMV system & design the system.
- Maintain & ensure site safety

Requirement

- Candidate must possess at least Bachelor's Degree/ Post-Graduate Diploma/Professional Degree in Engineering (Mechanical/Electrical/Civil) or equivalent.
- At least 4-5 year(s) of working experience in the related field. Fresh graduate is encouraged to apply.
- Competency in AutoCAD, T-fast & BIM is an added advantage.
- Mature, aggressive, hardworking, self-motivated, with a sense of urgency.
- Must be willing to travel and work independently to outstation and/or overseas for work purpose.
- Teamwork, good interpersonal skills and good communication skills.
- Vacancies are open to all our branches