

1 MJIIT-TUAT Glocal Eminence Course

Chemical Engineering Course experiment

Batik painting

Congkak playing

MJIIT has embarked collaborative venture with Tokyo University of Agriculture and Technology (TUAT) through a MJIIT Glocal Eminence Course 2/2024 that commence from 25 Feb – 9 March. 18 students from both universities involved in this language, engineering and cultural exchange program. The activities includes experiment, visit to laboratories and iKohza, playing tradisional game and visit KL Craft Centre for batik painting.

2 Sakura Science Program at National Institute of Technology, Kurume KOSEN

Group photo of participants

Student presentation

Visit to Okinawa paddy field

MJIIT has successfully sent 4 selected students to participate in the Sakura Science Program 2024 held at National Institute of Technology, Kurume KOSEN from 3-9 March. Main objective of this program is to facilitate group discussions among students from Japan, Thailand, Singapore, and Vietnam on methods to prevent the annual flooding in Kurume, Fukuoka, where students presented their result of discussion on final presentation day. Students also given an opportunity to visit Kewpie factory to experience mayonnaise sampling and visited Kyushu-Okinawa Agricultural Research Centre and its paddy field where they learned about research on crops and witnessed agricultural practices. These activities are a part of cultural and lifestyle element of the program.

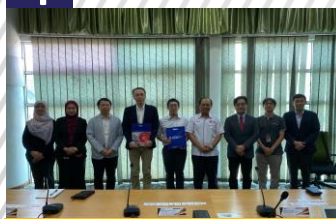

3 Visit from Niigata University

Engineering class

On 25-27 March, MJIIT received a professor and students from Niigata University. They attended Mechanical Engineering class and discussed on future academic collaboration.

4 KOSEN HQ & Fukushima KOSEN Visit

Souvenir exchange

The delegation from Japan KOSEN HQ & Fukushima KOSEN has paid a courtesy visit to MJIIT on 29 March to discuss on future collaboration focusing on research opportunity

5 BOUSAI Workshop

Sharing information on earthquake

Japanese Language & Cultural Centre (JLCC) of MJIIT held a BOUSAI workshop on 27 March. Various tips to prevent and facing disaster, mainly earthquake were introduced, especially to students who would like travel to Japan. Visitors from Niigata University also participated in this workshop.